

ORDER OF SERVICE

30 October 2022

A sycamore-fig tree in Israel

WELCOME TO ST ANDREW'S ON THE TERRACE

Wherever you are on your faith journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to, whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome here.

Please join in the congregational responses printed in bold italics, and stand if you are able, for the hymns and the offering prayer. We usually sing the hymns without announcement. To use the loop system in the church, turn your hearing aids on to the appropriate setting.

Please note your nearest fire exit.

The church and hall have been earthquake strengthened. In an earthquake: drop, cover, and hold.

Today's service has been created by Sue McRae, Tony Pears and Fiona McDougal

GATHERING

Heart of God:

on mountaintops crowned with mist,

and in museums filled with wonder:

in tents pitched by singing creeks

and in playgrounds filled with laughing children:

in every

sacred space

and in all

the ordinary suburbs,

you are with us,

listening to us

hearing us,

answering us,

and we do not lose

heart.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

"Jesus comes to me as a springtime tree"

AA 77 Words: Joy Cowley Music Ian Render 1999 4 verses

1. Jesus comes to me as a springtime tree
and I receive him as a springtime tree.
Fragrant the blossoming of the child,
fresh with laughter, free and wild,

and carrying the green of summer.

2. Jesus comes to me as a summer tree and I receive him as a summer tree.
Warm in the sun and richly laid with patterns of growth through light and shade,
and carrying the fire of autumn.
3. Jesus comes to me as an autumn tree and I receive him as an autumn tree.
Season of brightness, brightly ablaze
like a torch in the quietness of closing days
and carrying the wood of winter.
4. Jesus comes to me as a winter tree and I receive him as a winter tree.
Gentle the cross and gentle the snow,
gentle the path where he and I go,
carrying the buds of spring.

PRAYER

In the ordinariness of our daily lives,
a small part of us remains alert for signs of God's presence.
Despite a lack of awareness, in the face of distractedness,
our eye is caught, we overhear a snippet,
breathe in a hint of the Holy.
Drawn anew, our attention is held
as we crane to see, to touch,

Fiona

and stumble to follow the call to its Source.

Then, longing awakened,
we rush, all dignity forgotten,
to be near the One who sees and knows us in all our conflictedness and complexity.
Joy and excitement are ours
as we find we are at home in ourselves at last.

Accepted, healed and freed,
our gratitude spills over in justice and generosity.
With wonder we exclaim “Truly salvation has come to this place”.

JESUS PRAYER

THE WORD IN TEXTS

John Harper

Gospel

Luke 19:1-10 NLT

Contemporary reading: "The Crowdless Man"

by Michael Leunig

See him wandering alone,
the crowdless man,
he has no group,
he has no tribe,
he carries his identity in his pocket.
His pocket has a hole in it,
his story has a hole in it,
his tragedy is not a tune you can hum.
His suffering and sacrifice,
they have no handles;
his persecution has no logo,
no shrine, no yardstick.
His joy has no credentials,
his observations have no fixed address;
there are no awards whatsoever.
His gaze and yearning are way outside the loop,
his pilgrimage has lots of holes in it.
See him wandering alone,
beaming to himself.

OFFERING

OFFERTORY HYMN

'Give thanks for life' AA45

Words © Shirley Murray

Music: SINE NOMINE, Ralph Vaughan Williams (CH4 736&WOV 384) 2 vs

1. Give thanks for life, the measure of our days, mortal, we pass through beauty that decays,
yet sing to God our hope, our love, our praise,
Alleluia! Alleluia!
2. Give thanks for hope, that like the wheat, the grain that lies in darkness does its life retain in resurrection to grow green again, Alleluia! Alleluia!

OFFERING PRAYER

In this season of Spring, we give thanks for the promise of new growth and renewed hope that change can come.

We offer these gifts of money, mindful of the courage it takes to move beyond our own "tribe"
and show care and concern
to strangers, so change can come.

Amen

We recognise and bless the gifts brought to the table, and those which wing their way electronically from our banks to the church's account.

LIFE IN THE COMMUNITY OF ST ANDREW'S

People share notices and visitors are welcomed. If you have a notice, please move to the front row, ready to speak briefly from the lectern.

For the benefit of newcomers, please introduce yourself before you begin.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Ellen Murray

CIRCLE OF PRAYER

We think today of the people of the Christian Council of Tanzania. We hold all refugees in our hearts. We pray for the 122 refugees still detained in Nauru. We give thanks for progress that has been made and pray that their calls for justice might yet find a compassionate response. In New Zealand, we remember those in Parliament, and today we name the Hon Damien O'Connor (West-Coast – Tasman electorate) and Greg O'Connor (Ohariu electorate). Here in the Central Presbytery, we pray for the leaders and people of Patea - St Luke's Co-operating Church (Presbyterian-Methodist).

PRAYER FOR ST ANDREW'S

*Renew your people, God,
and renew our life in this place.
Give us a new spirit of unity
with all who follow the Way of Jesus and new bonds of love
with people of other faiths.*

*Bless the city in which we live
that it may be a place where honest dealing,
good government,
the desire for beauty,
and the care for others flourish.*

Bless this church that what we know of your will
may become what we do,
and what we believe the strong impulse
of our worship and work.

Amen

HYMN

“Will you come and follow me?” CH4 533

Words :John Bell and Graham Maule

Music Scottish folk melody arr John Bell 1987 5 verses

1. Will you come and follow me
if I but call your name?
Will you go where you don't know
and never be the same?
Will you let my love be shown,
will you let my name be known,
will you let my life be grown
in you and you in me?
2. Will you leave yourself behind
if I but call your name?
Will you care for cruel and kind
and never be the same?
Will you risk the hostile stare
should your life attract or scare?
Will you let me answer prayer
in you and you in me?
3. Will you let the blinded see
if I but call your name?
Will you set the prisoners free
and never be the same?
Will you kiss the leper clean,

and do such as this unseen,
and admit to what I mean
in you and you in me?

4. Will you love the 'you' you hide
if I but call your name?
Will you quell the fear inside
and never be the same?
Will you use the faith you've found
to reshape the world around,
through my sight and touch and sound
in you and you in me?
5. Lord, your summons echoes true
when you but call my name.
Let me turn and follow you
and never be the same.
In your company I'll go where your love and footsteps show.
Thus I'll move and live and grow
in you and you in me

SUNG BLESSING

“May the mystery of God enfold us”

Words:© Joy Cowley 1993 Music:© Jonathan Berkahn

May the mystery of God enfold us,
may the wisdom of God uphold us,
may the fragrance of God be around us,
may the brightness of God surround us,
may the wonder of God renew us,
may the loving of God flow through us,
may the peace of God deeply move us,
may the moving of God bring us peace.

May the mystery of God enfold us, may the wisdom of God uphold us, may the fragrance of God be around us, may the brightness of God surround us, May the wonder of God renew us, may the loving of God flow through us, may the peace of God deeply move us
 may the moving of God bring us peace. (Joy Cowley)

"PREPARING FOR DEATH AND DYING WORKSHOP" - SOME USEFUL REFERENCES

With the end in mind: dying, death and wisdom in an age of denial by Kathryn Mannix. Dr Kathryn Mannix has studied and practised palliative care for thirty years. In With the End in Mind, she shares beautifully crafted stories from a lifetime of caring for the dying, and makes a case for the therapeutic power of approaching death not with trepidation, but with openness, clarity, and understanding. Weaving the details of her own experiences as a caregiver through stories of her patients, their families, and their distinctive lives, Dr Mannix discusses the universal, but deeply personal, process of dying. With meditations on life, death, and the space between them, With the End in Mind describes the possibility of meeting death gently, with forethought and preparation, and shows the unexpected beauty, dignity, and profound humanity of life coming to an end.

These tools provided here will help you think about and write down what matters most to you.

There is no wrong or right way to capture this information. You only need to fill in the bits you want to. If you want to complete Section 6, this is best completed with help from a health care professional. Once you have captured everything you want, share this with your general practice team and keep a copy with you. You'll need to take this with you if you go into care or a hospital.

Goals of care. Factsheet <https://www.hqsc.govt.nz/assets/Our-work/Advance-care-planning/talking-COVID/Publications-resources/SGOC-factsheet-PATIENT-Jun-2020.pdf> Shared goals of care are when clinicians, patients and whānau explore patients' values, the care and treatment options available and agree the goal of care for the current admission and if the patient deteriorates.

PRESENTATION ON SHIRLEY MURRAY – SUNDAY NOVEMBER 20

Members of St Andrew's community are invited to a presentation by whānau member Anne Manchester on her research into the life and work of Shirley Erena Murray. This is for a biography she is writing about our much-loved hymn writer.

The presentation, entitled "Under Shirley's spell: researching the life and work of Shirley Erena Murray" will be given at an Ephesus meeting on November 20, from 5-7pm at Johnsonville Union Church. Anne will discuss why she decided to write this biography, her sources of information, and some of her interesting discoveries along the way. The presentation will conclude with a study of two hymns, with musical accompaniment by Hymns on Sunday producer Robyn Jaquiery.

If you are not a member of Ephesus and would like to attend please email Margaret Rushbrook on mrushbrook@xtra.co.nz to let her know. An indication of numbers will help with decisions around which room will best accommodate the meeting.

WORLD COUNCIL OF CHURCHES AND PEACE

This public meeting in Moscow with the church leadership is both a wonderful sign of the continuing efforts being undertaken to build a context for a peaceful resolution and a sobering reminder that the obstacles are huge...<https://www.oikoumene.org/news/his-holiness-patriarch-kirill-wcc-acting-general-secretary-meet-in-moscow-agreeing-that-war-cannot-be-holy>.

It is well worth a read, and offers us the opportunity to reflect on what further work we can support towards peace in Ukraine.

BID FOR A BACH 2022

How about a Spring or Summer break away from Wellington?

As a fundraiser for St Andrew's on the Terrace to help boost finances affected by Covid-19 cancellations for the St Andrew's Centre, we have 3 holiday homes on offer for a short holiday. The owners of these 3 holiday homes have generously agreed to donate all rent received to St Andrews.

Bid for a date at:

- 1) A classic cottage in Greytown at $90 per night;
- 2) A house in Whanganui, with a view over the city and all mod cons including Sky TV, for $100 per night;
- 3) A holiday home at Whatamango Bay, nestled in native bush in the Marlborough Sounds, accessible by car with a 15 minute drive from Picton, for $100 per night.

The Cottage in Greytown sleeps up to 4 people (2 bedrooms: one queen, two singles). A separate sleep out has 2 single beds for a larger group. The house in Whanganui and the house near Picton both sleep up to 6 people.

You need to provide your own towels and sheets.

For the houses in Greytown and Whanganui, you are responsible to leave the property as you found it.

For the holiday home at Whatamango Bay there is a $50 end cleaning fee. Send me an email to see if the property you would like to rent is available. Weekends tend to be at a premium so book early.

If your requested dates are available, you will be sent confirmation and detailed information about the holiday home and how to reach it, how to get in, instructions about water and power, and you will be sent bank account details for you to pay for your stay.
