

ORDER OF SERVICE

9 APRIL 2023

EASTER DAY

WELCOME TO ST ANDREW'S ON THE TERRACE

Wherever you are on your faith journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to, whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome here.

Please join in the congregational responses printed in bold italics, and stand if you are able, for the hymns and the offering prayer. We usually sing the hymns without announcement. To use the loop system in the church, turn your hearing aids on to the appropriate setting.

Please note your nearest fire exit.

The church and hall have been earthquake strengthened. In an earthquake: drop, cover and hold.

Today's service is led by Rev Dr Fei Taule'ale'ausumai

PRELUDE

CALL TO WORSHIP

From the noise and racket of Palm Sunday through the events of a tense and awkward Holy Week into the twilight of Maundy Thursday, through the darkness of Good Friday into the silence of Easter Saturday.
Then! New life bursts upon us this Easter Day.
From death to life,
we see and feel the grace of transformation.
Hallelujah!
Praise for this brand-new beginning!

SILENCE

OPENING RESPONSES

Hallelujah! Light has burst in on our world!
Hallelujah! We turn our faces to the sun of Love Hallelujah! Light will show the way in the darkness Hallelujah! Love is the way to wholeness of life!

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

WOV 303 'Thine be the glory'

Words: Edmond Louis Budry (1854-1932)

Tune: MACCABAEUS

1. Thine be the glory, risen, conquering Son, endless is the victory thou o'er death hast won;
angels in bright raiment rolled the stone away,
kept the folded grave-clothes where thy body lay.
*Thine be the glory, risen, conquering Son;
endless is the victory thou o'er death hast won.*
2. Lo, Jesus meets us, risen from the tomb;
lovingly he greets us, scatters fear and gloom;
let the church with gladness, hymns of triumph sing,
for the Lord is living, death has lost its sting.
*Thine be the glory, risen, conquering Son;
endless is the victory thou o'er death hast won.*
3. No more we doubt thee, glorious Prince of life;
life is nought without thee: aid us in our strife;
make us more than conquerors, through thy deathless love:
bring us safe through Jordan to thy home above.
*Thine be the glory, risen, conquering Son;
endless is the victory thou o'er death hast won.*

WELCOME

Kua ara te Karaiti!

He pono tonu, kua ara a Ia. Hareruia!

Christ is Risen! Christ is risen indeed. Alleluia!

E te whānau a Te Karaiti,

Ngā mihi aroha ki a tātou katoa.

Kia ora tātou.

Talofa lava

Talofa.

LIGHTING THE CHRIST CANDLE

Aware that the power of resurrection has forever changed who we are,
and given us the courage to boldly proclaim a living faith;

today we celebrate:
new life,
new joy,
new possibilities.

We give thanks for the Spirit of Life visible in Jesus, visible in us, visible in people in all walks of life.

The Candle is lit.

On this glad morning we celebrate that the powers of despair and destruction do not have the final word.

That new life breaks out.

That love is stronger than death.

That nothing can stop the life, hope, dreams, and love of Easter people.

The radiance of the Easter flowers remind us that new life,
new beginnings are possible.

The Easter candle reminds us that the darkness has not overwhelmed us, that the flame of the Risen Christ can still re-kindle the embers in us all.

God of grace, in whom we live and move and have our being, today we proclaim that death and darkness cannot control you.

Your love breaks out: healing, creating, embracing;
inviting us to build a community of equals where all are valued, honoured and cherished.

Amen.

“Do not be alarmed; you are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has been raised; he is not here.

Look, there is the place they laid him.” Mark 16:6

The powers of death cannot defeat the living power of love!

God, you are freedom overcoming captivity.

You are hope overcoming despair.

You are love overcoming hate.

Raise our eyes to see you as the new day dawns. Amen.

Eternal Spirit

Life-Giver, Pain-Bearer, Love-Maker, source of all that is and that shall be,

Father and Mother of us all,

loving God, in whom is heaven:

the hallowing of your name echo through the universe!

The way of your justice be followed by the peoples of the world!

Your heavenly will be done by all created beings!

Your commonwealth of peace and freedom sustain our hope and come on earth.

With the bread we need for today, feed us.

In the hurts we absorb from one another, forgive us.

In times of temptation and test, strengthen us.

From trials too great to endure, spare us.

From the grip of all that is evil, free us.

For you reign in the glory of the power that is love, now and for ever.

Amen.

LIGHTING THE RAINBOW CANDLE

We light the rainbow candle as a sign of our inclusivity and for our children.

FAMILY TIME

Dawn Cowdry

PASSING THE PEACE

Traditionally we shake hands to pass the peace and say "peace be with you." Now that COVID-19 is here we ask that you pass the peace without shaking hands.

THE WORD IN TEXTS

Pat Booth

Hebrew Bible

Jeremiah 31:1-6

New Testament Reading

Matthew 28:1-10

Contemporary Reading

Emmaus by Joy Cowley
(Psalms for the Road)

On that day of rain, I walked with You, seeing but not seeing You in wet trees, hearing but not hearing You in the symphony of water sounds played by a flooded stream.
You were everywhere and yet closer than the sanctuary of my umbrella, closer than a misted breath.
I didn't need to ask who You were for my heart burned with recognition.
Fearing that I would lose You, I cried,
"Oh Lord, come home with me!"
You smiled through the dancing rain,
the puddles, the grey fence posts, and You whispered, "Ah! I am already there."

RESPONSE

For the word of God in scripture and story,
for the word of God among us,
for the word of God within us....

We give thanks

HYMN

AA 59 'He came singing love'

Words and Music: Colin Gibson

Tune: SINGING LOVE

1. He came singing love and he lived singing love;
he died singing love.
He arose in silence.
For the love to go on
we must make it our song:
you and I be the singers.

2. He came singing faith and he lived singing faith
he died singing faith.
He arose in silence.
For the faith to go on
we must make it our song:
you and I be the singers.

3. He came singing hope and he lived singing hope;
he died singing hope.
He arose in silence.
For the hope to go on
we must make it our song:
you and I be the singers.

4. He came singing peace and he lived singing peace;
he died singing peace.
He arose in silence.
For the peace to go on
we must make it our song:
you and I be the singers.

REFLECTION It's that time of the year again! Rev Dr Fei Taule'ale'ausumai

St. Andrew's choir sings Festive Alleluia (Lyn Williams)

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (Please stand if you are able)

Alleluia!

Christ our life, you are alive

in the beauty of the earth

in the rhythm of the seasons

in the mystery of time and space,

Alleluia.

Christ our life, you are alive

in the tenderness of touch

in the heartbeat of intimacy

in the insights of solitude,

Alleluia.

Christ our life, you are alive
in the creative possibility of the dullest conversation,
the dreariest task,
the most threatening event,
Alleluia.

Christ our life, you are alive
to offer re-creation to every unhealed hurt,
to every deadened place,
to every damaged heart,
Alleluia.

You set before us a great choice.
Therefore we choose life.
The dance of resurrection soars and surges through the whole creation.
It sets gifts of bread and wine upon our table.
This is grace, dying we live.
So let us live.
Alleluia

HYMN:

AA31 'E te Atua'

Tune: KUM BA YA arr. Nicola Jansen & Guy Jansen

1. E te Atua, aroha mai (x3)
*ake, ake tonu e

1. O God, love us
forever and ever

2. E te Atua, manaaki mai (x3)

2. O God, bless us
forever and ever

3. E te Atua, awhina mai (x3)

3. O God, help us
forever and ever

OFFERTORY MUSIC

OFFERING HYMN:

'Give thanks with a grateful heart'

Words and Music ©Henry Smith 1978

Give thanks with a grateful heart,
give thanks to the Holy One,
give thanks because He's given many gifts to us.
And now let the weak say I am strong,
let the poor say I am rich, because of what our God has done for us, give thanks.

OFFERING PRAYER

*Compassionate God,
who calls all people to be one family, teach us to share your gifts with each other,
strengthen us to make peace by working together, and challenge us with a vision of the feast where all are welcome.
Amen*

We recognise and bless the gifts brought to the table, and those which wing their way electronically from our banks to the church's account.

LIFE IN THE COMMUNITY OF ST ANDREW'S

People share notices and visitors are welcomed. If you have a notice, please move to the front row, ready to speak briefly from the lectern.

For the benefit of newcomers, please introduce yourself before you begin.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Anna Smith

CIRCLE OF PRAYER

We think today of the people of Argentina and the Anglican Church of the Southern Cone of America. We hold all refugees in our hearts and pray in particular for those who are still detained in Nauru. We give thanks for recent progress and pray that their calls for justice might yet be answered with compassion. In New Zealand, we remember those in Parliament, and today we name Hon Meka Whaitiri (Ikaroa-Rāwhiti) and Helen White (List). Here in the Central Presbytery we pray for the leaders and people of Westmere Memorial Church, Whanganui.

PRAYER FOR ST ANDREW'S

*Renew your people, God, and renew our life in this place.
Give us a new spirit of unity with all who follow the Way of Jesus and new bonds of love with people of other faiths.*

*Bless the city in which we live that it may be a place where honest dealing,
good government,
the desire for beauty,
and the care for others flourish.*

*Bless this church that what we know of your will may become what we do, and what we believe the strong impulse
of our worship and work.
Amen*

COMMUNION:

WE CELEBRATE THE CHRISTIAN MEAL OF THANKSGIVING

THE INVITATION

St Andrew's is an open community and all are invited to Christ's Table. Wherever you are on your faith journey; wherever you have come from; wherever you are going to; whatever you believe; whatever you do not believe, you are welcome to participate in the communion. This is God's meal for all people.

INVITATION

This is the table, not of the church, but of God. It is made ready for those who love God and for those who want to love God more. So come, you with much faith and you who have little; You who are here often and you who have not been here long. Come, because it is the Christ who invites you, and wishes that those who want should meet God here.

THE GREAT PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Christ is with you.

And also with you.

Let us offer thanks and praise.

It is right to give thanks and praise.

It is indeed right, O Eternal Wisdom.

We praise you and give you thanks because the beauty of death could not contain you.

You broke forth from the coldness of the grave.

Before you, the stone was moved and the tomb of our world was opened wide.

For on this day we celebrate the account of your rising in power and revelation to Mary as a beloved stranger.

Therefore with the woman who gave you birth,
the men and women who befriended you and fed you,
who argued with you and followed you,
the woman who anointed you for death,
those who met you risen from the dead and with all your lovers throughout the ages
we praise you saying:

Holy, holy, holy, resurrection God,

Heaven and earth are full of you.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of God.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is our brother Jesus who walks with us the road of our grief and is known again in the breaking of bread.
Jesus offered the bread of life and the cup of blessing.

Come now, disturbing spirit of our God, take these earthly things, fruit of the vine and grain from the earth, and make us one body in Christ as we partake.

Open our graves, unbind our eyes, touch and heal all that has been buried within us that we need not cling to our pain but may go forth with power to release resurrection in the world.

CLOSING HYMN

AA 15 'Christ is Alive'

Words: Shirley Murray Music: Jillian Bray

1. Christ is alive, and the universe must celebrate, and the stars and the suns shout on this Easter Day!
Christ is alive, and his family must celebrate in a great alleluia,
a great alleluia
to praise the power that made the stone roll away.
2. Here is our hope: in the mystery of suffering is the heartbeat of Love, Love that will not let go.
Here is our hope, that in God we are not separate,
and we sing alleluia,
we sing alleluia
to praise the power that made the stone roll away.
3. Christ Spirit, dance through the dullness of humanity to the music of God, God who has set us free!
You are the pulse of the new creation's energy;
with a great alleluia,
a great alleluia
we praise the power that made the stone roll away.

BLESSING

May the sweet-smelling fragrance of love become part of the DNA of our lives so it is, inevitably, carried from this place and surround every person, every moment of every day.

SUNG BLESSING

FFS 29 'God speed you on your way'

Words and music Shona Murray

Tune: STAFFORD

1. God speed you on your way, safe keep you ev'ry day,
give you wing, cause to sing-- all this we wish and pray.
2. God give you space to thrive,
all senses kept alive,
health and hope, means to cope,
joyfully to arrive.
3. God lead you to the new,
places and points of view, paths to take, friends to make,
more life to travel through!

SUNG AMEN

AUDIO REFLECTIONS

Sunday reflections are usually available on our website.

<http://www.standrews.org.nz/category/sunday-gathering>

We welcome all visitors and invite you to stay for morning tea or coffee.

Please sign the visitors' book at the back of the church.

We hope you enjoyed worshipping with us. At St Andrew's we want you to feel at home—to join in with the activities of our community of faith, or to come and find your own spiritual place in your own time. If you would like more information about St Andrew's or to explore becoming a member or associate member, please fill in one of the welcome leaflets (at the back of the church) and hand it to a minister or a welcoming team member.

GENEROUS GIVING

St Andrew's depends on the generous giving of members and friends. If you would like to make a donation or support our work through planned giving, please contact our Parish Office or Treasurer. Bank account for donations is: St Andrews on The Terrace, BNZ Lambton Qy, 02-0534-0004022-02

ST ANDREW'S COMMUNITY NOTICES

EXPLORING FAITH GROUP

The Exploring Faith group meets after morning tea on the first Sunday of the month and all are welcome. Pat Booth has taken on the task of coordinating this programme for the year.

Each month, two speakers will make a ten to fifteen minute presentation about why they chose to be part of this faith community, then there will be about half an hour for responses and discussion.

The first two speakers are Heather Macfarlane, a Presbyterian through and through, and the second, Pat Booth, of Baptist heritage, who has been part of St Andrew's for only about ten years. (Incidentally, we're both parson's kids.)

If you would like to be a speaker at a subsequent session, please contact Pat 027 476 0427 or email patriciabooth@xtra.co.nz

By the end of the year I hope we will have discovered a bit more about what we mean when we say we are a Progressive Presbyterian Church!

FUNDRAISER FOR OHOPE MARAE

I would like to propose that St Andrew's organise a fundraiser to contribute to the appeal for Ohope marae:

This work is taking place to safeguard the treasure that is Ohope Marae. There is some urgency here. Recent storms, flooding and land slips in the North Island have reaffirmed the need for this work to be carried out as soon as possible.

In December, Te Aka Puaho advised Council of Assembly of the need to undertake earthworks to retain a slope to the side of Te Maungarongo at the marae. In the image above, you can see that this work is underway. Thanks to your generosity, our appeal has already raised $20,000 of the estimated $110,000 required. We still have a long way to go. I encourage you to please raise the idea of giving to this appeal with your parish.

Together let's ensure this peaceful sanctuary remains open to all, available to all, and a place of significance for us and generations to come.

WANT TO SING FOR EASTER?

ALL are welcome!

St. Andrews Singers is open to all who are keen to come to a few rehearsals and join us for Easter worship. The anthem is fun, rhythmic, and energetic.

Rehearsals will be:

Sunday, 9 April (9:00-9:45 am) Easter service

If you are keen to sing with us for this service, please come along and/or email Mark Stamper (t3maestro@yahoo.com). We look forward to having some of you join us!

STATIONS OF THE CROSS

Thank you to Janet Horncy, Lois Robertson and Paul Franken for arranging to put up the Stations of the Cross.

Sue

GREEN TABLECLOTHS

We are missing two of these. If by any chance you took them home to wash could you please let the office know and/or return them to church on Sunday.

Thank you, Pam / Christine

SPECIAL APPEAL DONATIONS

In recent months there have been several collections and a big thank you to everyone who has contributed. We have raised the following amounts:

- St Andrews Day November 2022: $1,455
- Christian World Service Christmas Appeal December 2022: $585
- Cyclone Gabrielle Appeal March 2023: $1,070 to Red Cross Cyclone Appeal

TAX YEAR END AND DONATIONS TO ST ANDREWS

The tax year ends on 31 March and all donations and planned giving to St Andrews are eligible for a donation receipt that entitles you to claim a 33% tax rebate from IRD. Donation receipts for planned giving during the year to 31 March 2022 will be issued as soon as we can during April. Please contact Treasurer Paul Barber if you have any questions about donations.

RENT-A-BACH AND FUNDRAISING UPDATE

Over the summer months three holiday homes have been available to St Andrew's people for rent as a fundraiser to help overcome last year's COVID-caused deficit. The owner of three holiday homes have generously donated all rent received to St Andrew's.

As at the end of February 2023 the amount raised through this initiative was $5,060.00 Together with cake and jam sales the total fundraising effort has reached $6,493.00. Thanks to all who have contributed to this effort.

If you would still like to take advantage of this opportunity, the houses in Whanganui and Whatamango Bay are still available. The Greytown cottage is no longer available.

Details are:

1. A house in Whanganui, with a view over the city and all mod cons including Sky TV, for $100 per night.
2. A holiday home in Whatamango Bay, nestled in native bush in the Marlborough Sounds, accessible by car with a 15 minute drive from Picton, for $100 per night.

Both sleep up to six people. You need to provide your own sheets and towels. For the house in Whanganui you need to leave the property as you found it. For Whatamango Bay there is a $50 end cleaning fee.

Send Andrew Matthews an email if you would like to book either of these houses: wa.matthews@gmail.com He will follow up on availability and details for access and payment.

ST ANDREW'S SUSTAINABILITY TIPS...

As part of our St Andrew's sustainability group activities we are starting a regular space in the enews to share events and resources.

If you have ideas or events to share please contact Sonia (email: soniapetrie@gmail.com or mob: 027-405-1302)

Events for your diaries:

This Sunday! April parish brunch

We are encouraging contributions to our April parish brunch this Easter Sunday (9 April) to be via a plastic free method. Let's see if we can minimise the use of single use plastics and encourage our creative sides :)

NURSES' RALLY – CIVIC SQUARE – SATURDAY April 15 at 11am

Could anybody who wishes to attend this rally as part of a St Andrew's group please get in touch with me (suehirst78@gmail.com) so we can arrange to meet up and see if we have enough people to enable us to bring the St Andrew's banner.

WIDER CHURCH AND COMMUNITY NOTICES

MODERATOR'S EASTER MESSAGE 2023

Resurrection and Restoration

The Easter message of death and resurrection is powerful on so many levels. Much is made in our contemporary Christian culture of the individual impact of this on our lives but there is also a powerful collective community impact that can be easily overlooked. I was struck by this when I was in the Hawke's Bay to preach at a combined service held in the wake of the devastation of Cyclone Gabrielle. The lectionary text for the day was Ezekiel's Valley of Dry Bones, a vision received while he languished in exile in Babylon lamenting the destruction of Jerusalem. As I worked with the text it came to life for me as a message about the resurrection and restoration of ravaged communities.

In my research, I came across the comment that the passage is 'a quintessential vision of human disaster'. And then the Sunday Star Times newspaper on the morning of the service stated that the 'cyclone caused a horticultural apocalypse in the Hawke's Bay', Ezekiel's vision in real time!

The Lord asks Ezekiel if the dry bones can live again, and he correctly throws it back on the Lord! To Ezekiel the scale of the devastation looked beyond human intervention. Some in the storm ravaged regions of the North Island express similar human hopelessness. The same newspaper article reports that, 'Federated Farmer says some families will call it quits after generations of working the land. This Cyclone may prove to be the last straw for some farmers'.

A beautiful thing about Ezekiel's vision is the way the Lord uses human agency to speak and breathe the bones back to life. As I listen to the stories of our Christian communities reaching out to their neighbours in places like Hawke's Bay, Gisborne and Wairoa, I see the same thing happening – God inspired hope-filled human agency, or should I say 'angel-cy', at work helping to bring communities back to life.

In the Hawke's Bay, the Art Deco restoration of Napier following the devastating 1931 earthquake stands today as a beacon of hope, just as does the eventual return of the faithful remnant of the Jewish people to Jerusalem in 538BC!

And I have watched community resurrection and restoration here in my home of Ōtautahi Christchurch in the wake of the devastation of our earthquakes. First, it was the springing up of street art, then the rehousing of the displaced, and then rebuilding of the CBD ... increasing signs of hope and resurrection everywhere I look.

We Jesus people are Easter people. We are resurrection people, carrying with us a message of hope to the most devastated of our communities, cities, and circumstances.
