Shamed and Perplexed

WELCOME TO ST ANDREW'S ON THE TERRACE

Wherever you are on your faith journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to, whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome here.

Please join in the congregational responses printed in bold italics and stand, if you are able, for the hymns and the offering prayer. We usually sing the hymns without announcement. To use the loop system in the church, turn your hearing aids on to the appropriate setting.

Please note your nearest fire exit.

The church and hall have been earthquake strengthened. In an earthquake: drop, cover and hold.

Today's service is led by Ross Scott

PRELUDE

Largo from "Serse"

G.F. Handel (1685 – 1759)

GATHERING

As we gather together in this sacred place may we recognise and affirm:

the pieces of possibility,
the bits of good, we bring,
allowing our individual gifts to weave a patchwork of justice and peace.

So let us celebrate the richness and diversity of life

OPENING SILENCE

Hear and feel your quiet breathing.
Hear and feel the quiet of this place and this community of people.

These people beside and around you bring joys and sorrows to this place.

In this quiet hour may our spirits be renewed.

In this gathering of old and new friends may we be ready to extend ourselves to those in need, and with trust to receive the hand that is offered.

Silence

In this time of celebration, may our minds be open to new truth, and our hearts be receptive to love,
as we give thanks for this life we are blessed to share.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

1 SNS3 'Welcome'

(Adapt. George Stuart)

Tune: REGENT SQUARE, 87.87.47 extended

1. We are thankful for a greeting and a welcome we all prize;
we are here for celebration,
searching for what satisfies;
with a welcome as we gather we can feel our spirits rise.
2. 'Welcome' is the way of Jesus;
'Welcome' is his promised word;
'Welcome' is for saints and sinner;
All are welcome; all have erred;
Jesus speaks his word of welcome - we respond for we have heard.
3. We all join in affirmation of the 'Love' that we all know;
like the vastness of an ocean
love is here in constant flow;
I am welcome; you are welcome;
Jesus says, "Let it be so.

WELCOME

E te whānau a Te Karaiti,
Ngā mihi aroha ki a tātou katoa.
Kia ora tātou.

Talofa lava
Talofa.

OPENING PRAYER

Responsive Contemporary Version of the Beatitudes
by Peter Matheson

Jesus, is this what you say to us today?

How blest are those who abhor easy pieties;
the kingdom of heaven is theirs.

How blest are those who train in non-violence;
they shall have the earth for their possession.

How blest are those who fast for justice;
they shall be satisfied.

How blest are those who see enemies as human;
mercy shall be shown to them.

How blest are those who live what they profess;
they shall see God.

How blest are those who build bridges of reconciliation;
they shall be called friends of God.

How blest are those who show the outcast that someone understands;
the kingdom of heaven is theirs.

Amen

JESUS PRAYER

© Rev Sherri Weinberg

God - heart of the world:

revealed through every aspect of creation:

understood through our awareness.

May we honour the holiness of creation and act accordingly so that your love is reflected in the way we live.

May we always be thankful for the food we eat and the friends we have.

May we forgive those who transgress against us and be forgiven for our wrong doings.

In the freedom of love may we live as your heartbeat and not be compromised by hesitation.

Through our freedom, may your justice be seen and heard and experienced forever and ever.

Amen.

LIGHTING THE RAINBOW CANDLE

We light the rainbow candle as a sign of our inclusivity and for our children.

PASSING THE PEACE

Traditionally we shake hands to pass the peace and say "peace be with you." Now that COVID-19 is here we ask that you pass the peace without shaking hands.

Contemporary Reading

Corrymeela Community. 'together is better', Our History

As Ray Davey watched from a prisoner of war camp the Allied firebombs that destroyed Dresden in 1945, he realised we all can succumb to hatred and violence when we accept a narrative of 'us' versus 'them'. Changed by this experience and inspired by communities of ecumenical Christian faith around Europe, Ray and others founded The Corrymeela Community in 1965 as a way of building a more peaceful N. Ireland.

During the conflict known as the Troubles, we welcomed people from different sides and provided a way for them to meet safely, have difficult conversations well and support one another. As we did so, we built a network of relationships based on trust and reconciliation. These relationships played a part in accelerating the N. Ireland peace process and inspiring people around the world to live out reconciliation in their daily lives.

RESPONSE

For the Word in scripture,
for the Word among us,
for the Word within us,
we give thanks.

HYMN

WOV 257 (i) 'Where Does Compassion Start?'

Words © 2009 Shirley Erena Murray

Tune: LOVE UNKNOWN by John Ireland

(A response to the 'Charter for Compassion') 4 verses

1. Where does compassion start?
How does compassion grow?
Her seed is at the heart
of every faith we know:
compassion honours others' place,
dethroning self with willing grace.

2. How does compassion thrive in worlds of greed and grief?
Her goodness stays alive
through those of strong belief:
compassion, luminous and clear,
outshining wastes of war and fear.
3. Where is compassion's role in cultures, or in creeds?
At centre, with the soul
who feels another's needs:
compassion brings the touch of friend,
a bandage that will bind and mend.
4. Dynamic is the power that heals, restores and gives, connecting at the core
with everyone who lives,
transcending culture, colour, race,
compassion builds the house of peace.

HYMN

FFS 32 'God who sets us on a journey'

Words: Joy Dine Music: Jillian Bray

Tune: CANVAS

1. God who sets us on a journey to discover, dream and grow, lead us as you led your people
in the desert long ago;
journey inward, journey outward,
stir the spirit, stretch the mind,
love for God and self and neighbour marks the way that Christ defined.

2. Exploration brings new insights, changes, choices we must face;
give us wisdom in deciding,
mindful always of your grace;
should we stumble, lose our bearings,
find it hard to know what's right,
we regain our true direction focused on the Jesus light.
3. End our longing for the old days, grant the vision that we lack – once we've started on this journey there can be no turning back;
let us travel light, discarding excess baggage from our past, cherish only what's essential,
choosing treasure that will last.
4. When we set up camp and settle to avoid love's risk and pain, you disturb complacent comfort,
pull the tent pegs up again;
keep us travelling in the knowledge
you are always at our side;
give us courage for the journey,
Christ our goal and Christ our guide.

OFFERTORY MUSIC

“Highwood”

by R. R. Terry (1865 – 1938)

OFFERING HYMN

AA 127 ‘Take my gifts’ verse 1

Words: © Shirley Murray Music: © Colin Gibson

Tune: TALAVERA TERRACE

Take my gifts and let me love you,
God who first of all loved me,
gave me light and food and shelter,
gave me life and set me free.
Now, because your love has touched me,
I have love to give away;
now the bread of love is rising,
loaves of love to multiply!

OFFERING PRAYER

All that we are, and all that we have, and all that we may become, comes from this planet, from God for we are made from its dust.

So we bring these offerings and ourselves to bring restoration to our relationships.

Relationships between the people of this world and humanities relationship with the rest of creation.

Amen

We recognise and bless the gifts brought to the table, and those which wing their way electronically from our banks to the church's account.

LIFE IN THE COMMUNITY OF ST ANDREW'S

People share notices and visitors are welcomed. If you have a notice, please move to the front row, ready to speak briefly from the lectern.

For the benefit of newcomers, please introduce yourself before you begin.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

David Douglas

CIRCLE OF PRAYER

We think today of the people of Bangladesh and the Bangladesh Baptist Church Sangha. We hold all refugees in our hearts and pray in particular for those who are still detained in Nauru. We give thanks for recent progress and pray that their calls for justice might yet be answered with compassion. In New Zealand, we remember those in Parliament, and today we name Camilla Belich (List) and Hon David Bennett (List). Here in the Central Presbytery we pray for the leaders and people of Carterton - St David's Presbyterian Church.

PRAYER FOR ST ANDREW'S

Renew your people, God, and renew our life in this place.

Give us a new spirit of unity with all who follow the Way of Jesus and new bonds of love with people of other faiths.

Bless the city in which we live that it may be a place where honest dealing,

*good government,
the desire for beauty,
and the care for others flourish.*

*Bless this church that what we know of your will may become what we do,
and what we believe the strong impulse
of our worship and work.
Amen*

HYMN

'Who is this man?'

Words: Mary Pearson
Tune: LONDONDERRY AIR

1. Who is this man who gathered people to him and touched their lives along each dusty way, who spoke to all with passion and with peacefulness and valued all their ordinary days.
Who is this man, who at the day's long ending,
would draw apart to wait on God and pray?
Who in the mystery that knows no ending,
would find God's wisdom
and would know God's words to say?
2. Who is this man who calls us now to follow, a shadow presence asking us to be companions on the way through this life journey, to live in truth, to set our tired world free?
So, let us find each other now in partnership, with ears to hear and eyes awake to see,
that we might grow in grace and understanding,
and walk beside that man who comes from Galilee.

SUNG BLESSING

FFS 29 'God speed you on your way'

Words by Shirley Murray, © Hope Publishing

Music: Shona Murray Tune: STAFFORD

1. God speed you on your way, safe keep you ev'ry day,
give you wing, cause to sing-- all this we wish and pray.
2. God give you space to thrive,
all senses kept alive,
health and hope, means to cope,
joyfully to arrive.
3. God lead you to the new,
places and points of view, paths to take, friends to make,
more life to travel through!

AUDIO REFLECTIONS

Sunday reflections are usually available on our website.

<http://www.standrews.org.nz/category/sunday-gathering>

We welcome all visitors and invite you to stay for morning tea or coffee.

Please sign the visitors' book at the back of the church.

We hope you enjoyed worshipping with us. At St Andrew's we want you to feel at home—to join in with the activities of our community of faith, or to come and find your own spiritual place in your own time. If you would like more information about St Andrew's or to explore becoming a member or associate member, please fill in one of the welcome leaflets (at the back of the church) and hand it to a minister or a welcoming team member.

GENEROUS GIVING

St Andrew's depends on the generous giving of members and friends. If you would like to make a donation or support our work through planned giving, please contact our Parish Office or Treasurer. Bank account for donations is: St Andrews on The Terrace, BNZ Lambton Qy, 02-0534-0004022-02

ST ANDREW'S COMMUNITY NOTICES

DCM FOODBANK APPEAL

The biannual DCM Foodbank appeal is being held on Saturday 27 May. St Andrews on The Terrace is allocated four hours in the afternoon at New World Newtown. DCM says this appeal can't come soon enough! Over the past few years we have seen our Foodbank struggle during the pandemic. But now – in the midst of the cost of living crisis – emergency food assistance is in high demand, and our shelves are looking very empty as we head into winter.”

Can you please help St Andrews fill its roster? We usually have two people on per hour – and their job is to hand out flyers to shoppers as they enter the supermarket.; collect food as people leave.

Sally Gray has kindly offered to coordinate the roster for us. Please let Sally know if you can help – email graygeorgesally@gmail.com or phone 021 0279 7472

SOCIAL JUSTICE EDUCATION GROUP

The Social Justice Education Group meets on 28 May, after morning tea, in Conference Room 1, not 3, this month. Our speaker will be parish member Dr Ben Gray who is Associate Professor in the Department of Primary Health Care & General Practice, University of Otago, Wellington. His topic will be “How does an understanding of trauma affect our understanding of Mental Health issues?” (Margaret Rushbrook)

RENT-A-BACH AND FUNDRAISING UPDATE

Over the summer months three holiday homes have been available to St Andrew's people for rent as a fundraiser to help overcome last year's COVID-caused deficit. The owner of three holiday homes have generously donated all rent received to St Andrew's.

As at the end of February 2023 the amount raised through this initiative was $5,060.00 Together with cake and jam sales the total fundraising effort has reached $6,493.00. Thanks to all who have contributed to this effort.

If you would still like to take advantage of this opportunity, the houses in Whanganui and Whatamango Bay are still available. The Greytown cottage is no longer available.

Details are:

1. A house in Whanganui, with a view over the city and all mod cons including Sky TV, for $100 per night.
2. A holiday home in Whatamango Bay, nestled in native bush in the Marlborough Sounds, accessible by car with a 15 minute drive from Picton, for $100 per night.

Both sleep up to six people. You need to provide your own sheets and towels. For the house in Whanganui you need to leave the property as you found it. For Whatamango Bay there is a $50 end cleaning fee.

Send Andrew Matthews an email if you would like to book either of these houses: wa.matthews@gmail.com He will follow up on availability and details for access and payment.

ST ANDREW'S SUSTAINABILITY TIPS...

Te Anamata Ā-Kai o Tō Tātou Tāone - Our City's Food Future

Wellington City Council has recently released their Food Systems Action Plan which outlines their vision for supporting local kai, enabling Māori kai sovereignty and creating a food secure future for Te Whanganui-a-Tara.

It's exciting that this document incorporates the Hua Parakore framework and acknowledges the important role urban agriculture plays in our community wellbeing and kai security.

RECYCLING OF HOUSEHOLD BATTERIES

As a result of a recent Congregational Conversation, Brian Burrell has provided a list of Wellington City locations where used household batteries can be dropped off for FREE. They are Karori Library, Kilbirnie Library, Manners Street near Willis (inward bus stop), Island Bay Community Centre, Newlands Community Centre, Tawa Community Centre, and the Southern Landfill Tip Shop. Thanks, Brian.

FINISHED A LOAF OF BREAD OR BOTTLE OF MILK?

Please save the bread bag and the clip (plastic only)/tie and milk bottle tops. The bags are used at the Compassion Soup Kitchen for “takeaway” lunches and the tags and milk bottle tops get recycled. Please fold the bags and pack separately. There is a collection box on the North Vestry table. Thanks—Kath, Trish and Brian.

SUPPORT FOR DCM (DOWNTOWN COMMUNITY MINISTRY)

MODERATOR'S MESSAGE REGARDING PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN AOTEAROA NEW ZEALAND (PWANZ)

Greetings

I write to inform the Church that Presbyterian Women Aotearoa New Zealand (PWANZ) has reluctantly decided to formally wind up as of 30 June 2023.

This has followed much prayer and discussion, and two national PWANZ meetings to vote on, and then confirm, this decision (as per their Rules/Terms of Reference).

The major reasons they have given for this decision are:

- The inability to attract younger Presbyterian women to our existing parish groups or as individual members. Our current mode of working does not suit their busy lives and other commitments.
- No one prepared to lead and govern the organisation at a national level. There are still a number of groups operating at a parish level and there is no reason why these should not continue to exist.
- Insufficient income to operate and meet known expenses.
- No longer meeting the Charities Commission requirements to operate as a charity.

There is much sadness and regret for the present members of PWANZ in making this decision and I am sure that sadness will also be felt in the wider Church community. This organisation has been an integral part of our Church in various forms for 117 years. Over that time, it has contributed so much in so many ways.

PWANZ will present a final report at General Assembly 2023. This will be a time for the PCANZ to remember, honour and give thanks for the wonderful contribution that PWANZ has made over so many years.

PCANZ Global Mission
Cyclone Appeal for the Presbyterian Church of Vanuatu

Onesua College Classroom roof destroyed by Cyclone Kevin in March

Category 4 Tropical Cyclones Judy and Kevin hit Vanuatu within 48 hours of each other on March 1 and 3 2023. The Presbyterian Church of Vanuatu has taken some time to gather information about damage to schools, churches and other property as a result of these cyclones. Many roofs were ripped off and water damage was sustained as a result, along with other impacts. Due to the isolated nature of many of Vanuatu's islands it has not been easy getting all these details together. But information recently received has estimated that repairs to PCV property on several affected islands will cost at least NZD $320,000. Onesua Presbyterian College on Efate Island was assessed separately and needs extensive repairs. This has not yet been costed but will be high.

Vanuatu's economy is still recovering after the impacts of Covid-19 and Cyclone Harold in 2020 and the cost of these repairs represents a heavy burden on the members and schools of the Presbyterian Church of Vanuatu. So PCANZ Global Mission has launched an appeal to help contribute towards this.

Donations to the Cyclone Appeal:

Donations can be made online to 02 0500 0086963 10. In the reference put PCV Cyclone Appeal. Send an email confirming your donation to Katrina Graham, katrina@presbyterian.org.nz, so a receipt can be issued. Thank you for your support for our Global Mission partner in Vanuatu.
