28 MAY 2023

Pentecost

WELCOME TO ST ANDREW'S ON THE TERRACE

Wherever you are on your faith journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to,
whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome here.

Please join in the congregational responses printed in bold italics and stand, if you are able, for the hymns and the offering prayer. We usually sing the hymns without announcement. To use the loop system in the church, turn your hearing aids on to the appropriate setting.

Please note your nearest fire exit.

The church and hall have been earthquake strengthened. In an earthquake: drop, cover and hold.

Today's service is led by Rev Dr Fei Taule'ale'ausumai

PRELUDE

'O for the wings of a dove'

(Felix Mendelssohn, 1809-1847)

GATHERING

As people from of old gathered to celebrate their covenant with the Holy One,

so we gather to reaffirm our wonder in a God who is always reaching out to us.

In Torah and prophet great wisdom is found,

in new words and meanings
God's voice speaks afresh.

With first fruits of the year's harvest
the ancients gave thanks,

our hearts, minds and voices
we bring now with joy.

SILENCE

OPENING RESPONSES

With the whole church we affirm

that we are made in God's image, befriended by Christ, empowered by the Spirit.

With people everywhere we affirm

God's goodness at the heart of humanity,
planted more deeply than all that is wrong.

With all creation we celebrate the miracle and the wonder of life, forever at work in ourselves and the world.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

HIOS 7 'As the wind song through trees'

Words: © Shirley Erena Murray Music: © Swee Hong Lim

Tune: WAIRUA TAPU

1. As the wind song through the trees,
as the stirring of the breeze,
so it is with the Spirit of God,
as the heart made strangely warm,
as the voice within the storm,
so it is with the Spirit of God.
Never seen, ever known where this wind has blown bringing life, bringing power to the world,
as the dancing tongues of fire,
as the soul's most deep desire,
so it is with the Spirit of God.
2. As the rainbow after rain,
as the hope that's born again,
so it is with the Spirit of God,
as the green in the spring,
as a kite on a string,
so it is with the Spirit of God,
making worlds that are new,
making peace come true,
bringing gifts, bringing love to the world,
as the rising of the yeast,
as the wine at the feast,
so it is with the Spirit of God.

WELCOME

E te whānau a Te Karaiti,
Ngā mihi aroha ki a tātou katoa.
Kia ora tātou.

Talofa lava
Talofa.

OPENING PRAYER

God of presence and faithfulness,
we seek you in the shifting sands of our lives.
The babble of many voices surrounds us,
insistent and never ending,
pulling us this way and that.
We strain to hear your words of wisdom and peace, that will keep us deeply connected to you and guide and sustain us on our long journey.
Calming our anxious hearts
we listen within your words are our own mother tongue
and recognising them, our hearts ignite
with astonishment and joy.

JESUS PRAYER

©Rev Sherri Weinberg

God-heart of the world:
revealed through every aspect of creation:
understood through our awareness.
May we honour the holiness of creation and act accordingly
so that your love is reflected in the way we live.
May we always be thankful for the food we eat
and the friends we have.
May we forgive those who transgress against us
and be forgiven for our wrong doings.
In the freedom of love may we live as your heartbeat
and not be compromised by hesitation.
Through our freedom, may your justice
be seen and heard and experienced forever and ever.
Amen.

LIGHTING THE RAINBOW CANDLE

We light the rainbow candle as a sign of our inclusivity and for our children.

FAMILY TIME

Dawn Cowdry

PASSING THE PEACE

Traditionally we shake hands to pass the peace and say "peace be with you." Now that COVID-19 is here we ask that you pass the peace without shaking hands.

Contemporary Reading

Come, Great Spirit

Norm S.D. Esdon Seeing Christ in Others

Spirit of celestial fire,
enlighten us – lift our spirits
where your light silvers sapphire air
and angels sing do-not-be-afraid;
where our vision arches
past the bend in the road
and over the rainbow;
where we can see
the forest for the trees,
the stars beyond our equations,
and the wings of the morning
beating back the night.

Spirit of freshening wind,
move us – change our point of view
until we can see our neighbour's pain
as our own;
until we can view our enemy
as estranged family;
until we can lift other spirits
as you have lifted ours.

Spirit of descending love,
bring us back to earth -
our eyes glowing silver-sapphire,
our hearts warm with angel song,
spirit of fire, wind and love,
abide with us and make us
kindred spirits.

RESPONSE

For the Word in scripture,
for the Word among us,
for the Word within us,
we give thanks.

HYMN

AA114 'Out of such sun and air'

Words: Colin Gibson

Tune: NORTHLAND

1. Out of such sun and air
what Christ may come,
shining with new and lovely light
on our dim and shrouded lives;
stirring our sleepiness with dreams,
visions of life beyond compare.
Out of such sun and air
come, Christ, however you will come.
2. Out of such cloud and mist
what Christ may come,
blurring the clear and simple lines
of our settled scheme of things;
calling on faith and hope and trust,
daring to danger, trial and risk.
Out of this cloud and mist
come, Christ, however you will come.
3. Out of such sudden storm
what Christ may come,
sweeping across the startled sky
of our calm and peaceful ways;
driving with tempest winds of change,
testing with tumult and reform.
Out of this sudden storm
come, Christ, however you will come.

REFLECTION "What is your Spiritual Gift?"

Rev Dr Fei Taule'ale'ausumai

1. Great and deep the Spirit's purpose,
hidden now in mystery,
nature bursts with joyful promise,
ripe with what is yet to be.
In a wealth of rich invention,
still the work of art unfolds:
barely have we seen, and faintly,
what God's great salvation holds.
2. Great and deep the Spirit's purpose,
making Jesus seen and heard.
Every age of God's creation
grasps new meanings from the Word.
Show us, Holy Spirit, show us
your new work begun today:
eyes and ears and hearts are open,
teach us what to do and say.
3. Great and deep the Spirit's purpose:
all God's children brought to birth,
freed from hunger, fear and evil
every corner of the earth,
and a million million voices
speak with joy the Saviour's name;
every face reflects his image,
never any two the same.
4. Great and deep the Spirit's purpose,
nothing shall be left to chance.
All that lives will be united
in the everlasting dance.
All fulfilled and all perfected,
each uniquely loved and known,
Christ in glory unimagined
once for all receives his own.

4. Wild flowers grow, birds find seed,
God attends to each one's need
as we share, all can live, as we love, we learn to give.

Jesus said, "Have a care -your hearts will always be where your riches are, where your riches are".

OFFERING PRAYER

May these offerings and our lives,
bring hope to those who have little,
and may these gifts be a symbol of our commitment to justice in our world.

We recognise and bless the gifts brought to the table, and those which wing their way electronically from our banks to the church's account.

LIFE IN THE COMMUNITY OF ST ANDREW'S

People share notices and visitors are welcomed. If you have a notice, please move to the front row, ready to speak briefly from the lectern.

For the benefit of newcomers, please introduce yourself before you begin.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Lynne Dovey

CIRCLE OF PRAYER

We think today of the people of Lesser Antilles and the Bangladesh Baptist Church Sangha. We hold all refugees in our hearts and pray in particular for those who are still detained in Nauru. We give thanks for recent progress and pray that their calls for justice might yet be answered with compassion. In New Zealand, we remember those in Parliament, and today we name Glen Bennett (New Plymouth) and Chris Bishop (List). Here in the Central Presbytery we pray for the leaders and people of Clive/Haumoana - St Francis Cooperating Parish (Presbyterian-Methodist-Anglican).

PRAYER FOR ST ANDREW'S

*Renew your people, God,
and renew our life in this place.
Give us a new spirit of unity
with all who follow the Way of Jesus and new bonds of love
with people of other faiths.*

*Bless the cities in which we live
that it may be a place
where honest dealing,
good government,
the desire for beauty,
and the care for others flourish.*

*Bless this church
that what we know of your will
may become what we do,
and what we believe
the strong impulse
of our worship and work.
Amen*

RECORD OF ORGAN RESTORATION DONORS

When the restored organ was re-installed in the gallery, we requested the organ builders to make a book stand on which we could place a book that recorded all of the people who contributed to the project, as an acknowledgement of their generosity and for posterity. We intend to make an electronic copy too. This stand is located immediately behind the console and is an elegant piece of carpentry consistent with the wood working talents of the organ builders. Do go and have a look. We are currently in the process of creating the book of donors.

To that end we have a request. If you made a donation and do NOT wish to have your name recorded in the book, in other words you want your donation to remain anonymous, can you please send an email advising of this to Christine at: office@standrews.org.nz

Let's talk Climate workshops by Parents for Climate NZ

Quite often we are advised to have more conversations about climate change but starting these conversations can feel awkward and messy. It isn't always an easy subject to talk about, especially if we are feeling overwhelmed, think we won't agree or worry about conflict.

Let's Talk Climate aims to equip you with the skills to have good conversations about climate change. When we have good conversations, we experience or deepen a sense of connection, feel like we have been understood and also understand another perspective a bit better. Purely exchanging information or winning an argument is not the goal. The more we can constructively talk about climate change with each other, the more inclusive the solutions will be that work for everyone.

The workshops cover a range of interconnected themes that support you in talking about climate change with a range of people and places.

MODERATOR'S MESSAGE REGARDING PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN AOTEAROA NEW ZEALAND (PWANZ)

Greetings

I write to inform the Church that Presbyterian Women Aotearoa New Zealand (PWANZ) has reluctantly decided to formally wind up as of 30 June 2023.

This has followed much prayer and discussion, and two national PWANZ meetings to vote on, and then confirm, this decision (as per their Rules/Terms of Reference).

The major reasons they have given for this decision are:

- The inability to attract younger Presbyterian women to our existing parish groups or as individual members. Our current mode of working does not suit their busy lives and other commitments.
- No one prepared to lead and govern the organisation at a national level. There are still a number of groups operating at a parish level and there is no reason why these should not continue to exist.
- Insufficient income to operate and meet known expenses.
- No longer meeting the Charities Commission requirements to operate as a charity.

There is much sadness and regret for the present members of PWANZ in making this decision and I am sure that sadness will also be felt in the wider Church community. This organisation has been an integral part of our Church in various forms for 117 years. Over that time, it has contributed so much in so many ways.

PWANZ will present a final report at General Assembly 2023. This will be a time for the PCANZ to remember, honour and give thanks for the wonderful contribution that PWANZ has made over so many years.

Cyclone Appeal for the Presbyterian Church of Vanuatu

Onesua College Classroom roof destroyed by Cyclone Kevin in March

Category 4 Tropical Cyclones Judy and Kevin hit Vanuatu within 48 hours of each other on March 1 and 3 2023. The Presbyterian Church of Vanuatu has taken some time to gather information about damage to schools, churches and other property as a result of these cyclones. Many roofs were ripped off and water damage was sustained as a result, along with other impacts. Due to the isolated nature of many of Vanuatu's islands it has not been easy getting all these details together. But information recently received has estimated that repairs to PCV property on several affected islands will cost at least NZD $320,000. Onesua Presbyterian College on Efate Island was assessed separately and needs extensive repairs. This has not yet been costed but will be high.

Vanuatu's economy is still recovering after the impacts of Covid-19 and Cyclone Harold in 2020 and the cost of these repairs represents a heavy burden on the members and schools of the Presbyterian Church of Vanuatu. So PCANZ Global Mission has launched an appeal to help contribute towards this.

Donations to the Cyclone Appeal:

Donations can be made online to 02 0500 0086963 10. In the reference put PCV Cyclone Appeal. Send an email confirming your donation to Katrina Graham, katrina@presbyterian.org.nz, so a receipt can be issued. Thank you for your support for our Global Mission partner in Vanuatu.
