BALANCE

WELCOME TO ST ANDREW'S ON THE TERRACE

Wherever you are on your faith journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to, whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome here.

Please join in the congregational responses printed in bold italics and stand, if you are able, for the hymns and the offering prayer. We usually sing the hymns without announcement. To use the loop system in the church, turn your hearing aids on to the appropriate setting.

Please note your nearest fire exit.

The church and hall have been earthquake strengthened. In an earthquake: drop, cover and hold.

Today's service is led by Rev Jim Cunningham

PRELUDE

'The Swan'

by Saint-Saens (1835-1921)

CALL TO WORSHIP

Come in. Come into this place which we make special by our presence.
Come into this place
where the ordinary is sanctified,
the human is celebrated,
the compassionate is expected.
Together we make it a holy place with our every act of worship.

SILENCE

GATHERING

We come to be opened by visions that can enlist us in larger causes and more caring actions.

We come to hear stories that might takes us into a deeper kind of integrity, and reconnect us with our better selves.

So may the warmer fullness that we seek fill our hearts, our minds and our spirits.

Let us worship the One we name God

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

'Sing Praise to all'

Words: © Gretta Vosper;

Tune: WOV 28 LOBE DEN HERREN

1. Sing praise to all that has offered us life and sustains us – all that has opened our hearts to the love borne within us:
family and friends,
beauty we see without end –
gifts that our lives lay before us.
2. Sing praise to all that has opened our mind to new vistas – all that has called us to seek out new truths through the ages:
Vision and word,
Music that sought to be heard,
These are the gifts that will mould us.
3. Sing praise to minds that will fashion our bold new tomorrow's yesterday's wisdom released from its dogma and credos.
Evermore free
to live out what we believe walking the path that Life hallows.

WELCOME

E te whānau a Te Karaiti,
Ngā mihi aroha ki a tātou katoa.

Kia ora tātou.

Ou te faatalofa atu I le Suafa o Iesu Keriso

Talofa lava, we too greet you in the name of Jesus Christ

A special welcome to those who are visiting us, please join us for morning tea in the hall after church.

OPENING PRAYER

Compassionate Love, you are the gathering one who calls us into community with each other;
to love and work, support and heal.

You are the gathering one
who calls us into community with all people;
to bring justice and hope, freedom and truth.

You are the gathering one
who calls us into community with the whole creation;
to live in harmony, to cherish and renew.

For our community gathered here, for the spirit that called us together and drew us to this place:
We give thanks.

For moments we have shared with others;
for times we have reached out across barriers of distance and fear;
for times when others have reached out to us:
We give thanks.

For our weaving together out of many separate selves
this hour of celebration and reflection;
this community of faith and hope:
We give thanks this day. Amen.

JESUS' PRAYER

Jim Cotter paraphrase

Eternal Spirit
Life-Giver, Pain-Bearer, Love-Maker,
source of all that is and that shall be,
Father and Mother of us all,
loving God, in whom is heaven:
the hallowing of your name
echo through the universe!
The way of your justice be followed by the peoples of the world!
Your heavenly will be done
by all created beings!
Your commonwealth of peace and freedom sustain our hope and come on earth.
With the bread we need for today, feed us.
In the hurts we absorb from one another, forgive us.
In times of temptation and test,
strengthen us.
From trials too great to endure, spare us.
From the grip of all that is evil, free us.
For you reign in the glory of the power that is love, now and for ever.
Amen.

Labour Day

By Lill Pluta

People work. People play.
That's why we have Labour Day.
Plumbers, bakers, painters, vets,
fishermen with giant nets.
Firefighters, engineers,
barbers snipping with their shears.
Teachers, waiters, nurses, cooks,
authors writing thrilling books.
Carpenters and deputies,
people who take care of bees.
No matter what it is you do,
there's one thing that's always true.
Every worker needs to rest.
I hope your Labour Day's the best!

HYMN:

Words: Janet H Wootton (Stainer & Bell)

Tune: WOV 68 PRAISE, MY SOUL

1. Worker God, who planned creation – complex splendour held in one;
spoke out threads of light and matter,
weaving what your word had spun,
then, with proper satisfaction,
rested when the work was done.
2. Who are we to spoil the pattern, make redundant hands and minds;
tarnish pleasure in achievement
which your pleasure undersigned,
crushing lives, and wasting talent,
uncreating humankind.
3. Many see the sudden ending of their deeply cherished plans through the failure of a system which no longer meets demands, and the fruit from years of effort slips away from helpless hands.
4. Helplessness fuels bitter anger – home and loved ones bear the cost.
Voices raised create a Babel,
countermanding Pentecost;
and by this disintegration,
whole communities are lost.
5. Worker God within creation, weaving what our hands have spun,
give to us consistent strength
to speak your word and see it done.
So through just and human triumphs
may your victory be won.

REFLECTION

Jim Cunningham

A RESPONSIVE PRAYER FOR JUSTICE

(by Rebecca Sutton, Program Coordinator of Global Women's Exchange. This prayer was developed for the NY State Labor-Religion Coalition's seventh annual 40-hour fast. It was also part of Prayers for a Just Economy, a prayer service calling for an increase in the federal minimum wage held in Washington, DC, July 24, 2013.)

Pray for those who are hungry.

Pray harder for those who will not feed them.

Pray for those who struggle each week to pay their bills.

Pray harder for the wealthy who do not care.

Pray for those who are homeless.

Pray harder for those who deny them shelter.

Pray for the sick and lonely.

Pray harder for those who will not give them comfort.

Pray for those who cry out for dignity.

Pray harder for those who will not listen.

Pray for those oppressed by unjust wages.

Pray harder for those who exploit them.

Pray for those who bear the yoke of prejudice.

Pray harder for those who discriminate against them.

Pray for those whose basic needs are denied.

Pray harder for public officials who cater to the greedy and ignore those bound unjustly. Amen.

HYMN

HIOS 56 'Here in the busy city'

Words: © Shirley Erena Murray Music: © Barry Brinson

Tune: WOV 509 MORNING LIGHT

1. Here in the busy city
 now let the Church be seen where lesser gods are worshipped
 in money and machine;
 where news is but sensation,
 the Good News hardly heard -- now let the Church take action
 in living out the Word!

2. In policies and planning the Church be there to speak to moderate the powerful,
to argue for the weak:
where law must sit in judgment
and love is little known,
there at the crisis centre
the Christ concern be shown.
3. Where litter chokes the gutter
and people go to waste,
where joblessness is bitter and living lost its taste -- to under-leavened people
be proof of rising yeast,
in lives devoid of flavour
be saltiness released!
4. Here in the busy city
God walks on every street
in generous or greedy,
the honest or the cheat;
and daily we must offer
the good that goes unpriced with vigour and with vision -
the lifestyle of the Christ.

OFFERING MUSIC

'Jesus stand among us'

(Graham Kendrick (b 1950) arr Guy Jansen)

OFFERING HYMN

AA 127 'Take my gifts' verse 3

Words: © Shirley Murray Music: © Colin Gibson

Tune: TALAVERA TERRACE

Take whatever I can offer – gifts that I have yet to find,
skills that I am slow to sharpen,
talents of the heart and mind,
things made beautiful for others in the place where I must be:
take my gifts and let me love you,
God who first of all loved me.

OFFERING AND PRAYER OF DEDICATION

*We give thanks to God for our life and the courage we are given to live it.
Let our gratitude for life be expressed in our generosity.
Let our faith be expressed in engagement with the world
for the purpose of transformation,
for peace and love and justice.
Let our hope for our world find full expression in our daily attitude of mind. Amen.*

We recognise and bless the gifts brought to the table, and those which wing their way electronically from our banks to the church's account.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Lois Robertson

CIRCLE OF PRAYER

We think today of the people of Columbia and the Presbyterian Church of Colombia. We hold all refugees in our hearts and pray in particular for those who are still detained in Australia. We give thanks for recent progress and pray that their calls for justice might yet be answered with compassion. In New Zealand, we remember those in Parliament, and today we name Hon Christopher Luxon (PM, Botany), James Meager (Rangitata). Here in the Central Presbytery we pray for the leaders and people of St James' Union Church, Masterton.

PRAYER FOR ST ANDREW'S

*Bless your people, God
and renew our life in this place Refresh us with a spirit of love and respect for all who follow the Jesus Way,
for those whose pathways differ from our own,
and for care of the Earth and its creatures.*

Bless the cities in which we live
that they may be places
where honest dealing,
good government,
the desire for beauty,
and the care for others flourish.

Bless this church that what we know of your will
may become what we do,
and what we believe,
the strong impulse
of our worship and work.
Amen.

CALL TO SERVICE (standing)

K McIlhagga

Spirit of God brooding over the waters of our chaos,
inspire us to generous living.

Wind of God dancing over the desert of our reluctance,
lead us to the oasis of celebration.

Breath of God inspiring communication among strangers,
make us channels of your peace.

CLOSING HYMN

'Past and present with our dreaming'

Words : Colin Gibson;

Music: WOV 478 CWM RHONDDA

1. Past and present, with our dreaming,
Join to make us what we are;
ancient wisdom, ancient follies
shape the way we love and care:
Give us reverence, give us wisdom,
From the past for life today.

2. Make us mindful of each moment – ev'ry force, each strength, each flaw;
free us from those empty longings which consume us more and more:
Give us vision, give us courage,
For this present age of change.
3. We must face the future's challenge to create a better earth
hand in hand with all who labour dream and suffer for its birth,
For through sharing, and through caring
We shall build community.

BLESSING

SUNG AMEN

DCM FOODBANK APPEAL AT NEWTOWN NEW WORLD, SATURDAY NOVEMBER 18TH.

This important Pre-Christmas event is around the corner!

The last Appeal in May was very successful so please let me know if you are willing to volunteer on Saturday Nov 18th for this Appeal.

We will work from 12.00 - 4.00pm, ie four hours.

Eight volunteers are required.

Two people will be needed each hour to hand out flyers and manage goods and donations as they are dropped off by shoppers on their way out.

The work is pleasant (greeting and thanking!), the environment sheltered from wind and rain and of course the outcome very worth your while!

As I will be away for a few weeks from the end of October, I am hoping to get keen supporters signed up ASAP!!

Look forward to hearing from you....
