WELCOME TO ST ANDREW'S ON THE TERRACE

Wherever you are on your faith journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to, whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome here.

We recognise that being inclusive is an ongoing journey and we are continuing to learn. We are committed to challenging discrimination within the church and wider society.

Please join in the congregational responses printed in bold italics.

Please stand if you are able, for the hymns and the offering prayer.

We usually sing the hymns without announcement.

Please note your nearest fire exit. The church and hall have been earthquake strengthened.

In an earthquake: drop, cover and hold.

Today's service is led by Rev Dr Fei Taule'ale'ausumai

PRELUDE

CALL TO WORSHIP

We gather here on this Peace Sunday to remember the bombing of Hiroshima

and the ravages and destruction that war brings.

We also gather here seeking a vision of peace that inspires us with hope:

hope of peace,

hope of justice,

hope of love,

hope of God's Shalom.

SILENCE

GATHERING

As followers of Jesus we seek to live

As he might have lived were he here

What truths would he speak into our society?

What talk might he encourage?

What anger might he express?

How might we do all of those here and now in this place and time?

We seek wisdom and guidance

Wisdom and guidance greater than our own

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

“Sing Praise to All”

Words: © Gretta Vosper. Tune: LOBE DEN HERREN WOV 28

1. Sing praise to all that has offered us life and sustains us – all that has opened our hearts to the love borne within us:
family and friends,
beauty we see without end –
gifts that our lives lay before us.
2. Sing praise to all that has opened our minds to new vistas – all that has called us to seek out new truth through the ages:
vision and word,
music that sought to be heard
these are the gifts that will mould us.
3. Sing praise to minds that will fashion our bold new tomorrows – yesterday's wisdom released from its dogma and credos.
evermore free
to live out what we believe walking the path that Life hallows.

WELCOME

E te whānau a Te Karaiti,
ngā mihi aroha ki a tātou katoa.

Kia ora tātou.

Ou te faatalofa atu i le Suafa o Iesu Keriso

Talofa lava, we too greet you in the name of Jesus Christ

A special welcome to those who are visiting us. Please join us for lunch in the hall after church.

OPENING PRAYER

Peace is more than a quiet morning with a calm sea

more than cessation of noise when building stops

It is more than a warm feeling somewhere below your heart

more than order and tidiness when the kids are in bed

Peace is strong and robust

just and fair

Peace is hard won and worthwhile,

the work of communities of peacemakers worldwide.

Let us sing today for peace,

Let us sing for peace together

God - heart of the world:

revealed through every aspect of creation:

understood through our awareness.

May we honour the holiness of creation and act accordingly

so that your love is reflected in the way we live.

May we always be thankful for the food we eat

and the friends we have.

May we forgive those who transgress against us

and be forgiven for our wrong doings.

In the freedom of love may we live as your heartbeat

and not be compromised by hesitation.

Through our freedom, may your justice

be seen and heard and experienced forever and ever.

Amen.

Contemporary Reading

Let Us Be Midwives!

An untold story of the atomic bombing by Sadako Kurihara, translated by Richard Minear

Night in the basement of a concrete structure now in ruins.
Victims of the atomic bomb jammed the room;
It was dark—not even a single candle.
The smell of fresh blood, the stench of death,

The closeness of sweaty people, the moans.
From out of all that, lo and behold, a voice: "The baby's coming!"
In that hellish basement,

At that very moment, a young woman had gone into labour.
In the dark, without a single match, what to do?
People forgot their own pains, worried about her.
And then: "I'm a midwife. I'll help with the birth."

The speaker, seriously injured herself,
had been moaning only moments before.
And so new life was born in the dark of that pit of hell.
And so the midwife died before dawn, still bathed in blood.

Let us be midwives! Let us be midwives!
Even if we lay down our own lives to do so.

Sadako Kurihara (1913 – 2005) was a poet, writer and peace activist who survived the Hiroshima bombing. "Let Us Be Midwives" was based on her experience in a shelter in the aftermath of the bombing. (In reality, the midwife survived and was later able to meet the child she had delivered.) Translator Richard Minear is professor emeritus at UMass Amherst.

RESPONSE

For the Word in scripture,
for the Word among us,
for the Word within us,
we give thanks.

HYMN

LIL116 "It is time, let the white poppies bloom"

Words: ©2015 Shirley Murray. Music ©2015 Colin Gibson

1. It is time! Let the white poppies bloom and the blood of the past stain no more;
It is time for the sowing of seed that will outgrow the jungles of war.

REFRAIN

And the soul of the world will be healed (will be healed)
and the darkness give way to the sun, and the terror of nuclear night will be gone
in a peace that will never be done.

2. It is time that the white poppies grow through the hatreds and hurts that survive,
it is time for the tumbling of towers,
and the building of trust kept alive.

REFRAIN

And the soul of the world will be healed...

3. It is time: let the white petals float over countries and cultures and lands;
It is time that the dreams that were lost
be reclaimed by our hearts and our hands.

REFRAIN

And the soul of the world will be healed...

HYMN

'How happy you who work for peace!'

Words: © 1992 Shirley Murray, Hope Publishing Co.

Tune : GONFALAN ROYAL WOV 318

1. How happy you who work for peace!
Your hands shall plant and not destroy,
your words defuse the power of hate,
and prayers bring aroha and joy.
2. The scars of earth, the blast of bomb shall then be healed, and green will grow, the air that radiated death
give life and health, as sun and snow.
3. The toys of war shall all be sold to buy a feast the world can share, the glint of guns become the tools that till the earth and make it fair.
4. How happy you who work for peace,
who mend the torn, who bend the rod!
You make the Christ direction plain,
you truly are a child of God.

OFFERTORY MUSIC

OFFERING HYMN

WOV 561 'Kneels at the Feet'

Words: Tom Colvin Ghana Folk Melody Verse 1

1. Kneels at the feet of his friends silently washes their feet:
master who acts as a slave to them

Refrain

*Yesu, Yesu,
fill us with your love,
show us how to serve,
the neighbours we have from you.*

OFFERING PRAYER

*Compassionate God who calls all people to be one family Teach us to share our gifts with each other Strengthen us to make peace by working together
And challenge us with that deep understanding That reminds us who we are
And what we are to do with our lives. Amen.*

We recognise and bless the gifts brought to the table, and those which wing their way electronically from our banks to the church's account.

LIFE IN THE COMMUNITY OF ST ANDREW'S

People share notices. If you have a notice, please move to the front row, ready to speak briefly from the lectern.

For the benefit of newcomers, please introduce yourself before you begin. Thank you.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Anna Smith

CIRCLE OF PRAYER

We think today of the people of Kazakhstan, and we pray for dialogue between Muslims, Christians and Jews in Kazakhstan and throughout the world. We hold all refugees in our hearts and pray in particular for those who are still detained in Australia. We give thanks that we in New Zealand have at last secured the chance to welcome 450 of this group over the next 3 years. We pray that more will have the opportunity to be resettled in the near future. In New Zealand, we remember those in Parliament, and today we name Cameron Luxton (list) and Jo Luxton (list). Here in the Central Presbytery we pray for the leaders and people of the Whanganui - St Paul's - St Mark's Presbyterian Church.

PRAYER FOR ST ANDREW'S

*Bless your people, God
and renew our life in this place.
Refresh us with a spirit of love and respect for all who follow the Jesus Way,
for those whose pathways differ from our own,
and for care of the Earth and its creatures.*

Bless the cities in which we live that they may be places

*where honest dealing,
good government,
the desire for beauty,
and the care for others flourish.*

*Bless this church that what we know of your will
may become what we do,
and what we believe,
the strong impulse
of our worship and work.
Amen.*

CLOSING HYMN

HIOS 19 'Deep in the Human Heart'

Words: © William L (Bill) Wallace. Tune: DIADEMATA WOV 163

1. Deep in the human heart
the fires of justice burn;
with visions of a world renewed through radical concern.
as Christians we are called to set the captives free,
to overthrow the evil powers
and end hypocrisy.
2. This is our task today,
to build a world of peace;
a world of justice, freedom, truth,
where kindness will increase;
a world from hunger freed,
a world where people share,
where every person is of worth and no-one lives in fear.
3. Taking the step of faith, we leave the past behind and move into the future's world with open heart and mind.
by grace we work with Christ,
as one community,
to bring new hope and fuller life
to all humanity.

BLESSING

Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

SUNG BLESSING

PALOMA BRUCE - GIVE A LITTLE FUNDRAISING PAGE

Paloma Bruce recently started attending St. Andrew's parish. She is fundraising for an electric wheelchair on Givealittle. Paloma has Functional Neurological Disorder (FND) which causes problems with her nervous system. Her symptoms fluctuate so sometimes she can walk and other times cannot, sometimes resulting in temporary paralysis. An electric wheelchair would help her to get around the house more easily and to get out of the house more independently including going to church. Thank you for your support!

RECYCLING OF HOUSEHOLD BATTERIES

RELIEFAID APPEAL FOR GAZA

Another option is ReliefAid which is on the ground delivering emergency aid to families. The situation in Gaza is catastrophic, the death toll rises daily and families have nowhere to flee. Compounding the distress, Gaza's closed borders have made humanitarian access all but impossible, leaving families lost, abandoned and without the basics needed to survive. Despite these monumental challenges, ReliefAid is NOW delivering aid in Gaza. Leveraging our established networks on the ground, we have deployed a team within Gaza to deliver life-saving aid directly to families. Donations can be made here: www.reliefaid.org.nz/gaza-appeal/

Together we will make a difference. Thank you. Mike Seawright, Founder and Chief Executive
